With the continuation of the event #KROX – the Konradin RobotX Forum, the Konradin Media Group presents innovations from robotics and automation in a practical format of congress and exhibition. Whether simple robotics, intelligent robotics, collaborative robotics, cognitive robotics or mobile robotics: The Konradin RobotX Forum, which is organized by Automationspraxis and Industrieanzeiger, makes robotics trends come alive – including networking and know-how transfer.

Possible topics:

- AI-powered robotics
- Collaborative Robotics 2.0
- Simple robotics
- Mobile robotics and mobile cobots
- Digital Twins and Simulation
- Smart sensor technology and robot vision
- Flexible gripping technology
- Smart components
- and so on.
