Manufacture and Packaging of Meat Alternatives

The market for meat alternatives is growing steadily. On the one hand, the growing range of these products appeals in particular to people who want to reduce their meat consumption, as well as vegetarians and vegans. On the other hand, the increasing demand means that more and more food manufacturers are entering this growth market themselves.

In the web session "Production and Packaging of Meat Alternatives", well-known companies will present their systems and services for the production and packaging of meat alternatives. The spectrum of solutions presented ranges from mixers and extruders to additives and corresponding product concepts through to special packaging solutions.

The web session will be moderated by
